Original Certificate of Exemption
(American Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples)

Adopted June 15, 2016 General Assembly U.N.

This Certificate of Exemption is prepared in accordance with de jure Ancient Aboriginal, Indigenous, Divine, Living, Natural Moabite Moorish American National, Ammallah Kortia Mooris-Bey, true and de jure natural person in flesh and blood- a heiress of the land, do declare, establish, execute, express, and proclaim For The Record, By The Record, and On The Record:

I am a Sovereign Aboriginal Indigenous Moor/Maroon-American National of the Americas and adjoining Islands Exercising my Right to Impunity.
All Rights Retained and Reserved.

Concerned that indigenous peoples have suffered from historic injustices as a result of, inter alia, their colonization and dispossession of their lands, territories and resources, thus preventing them from exercising, in particular, their right to development in accordance with their own needs and interest.

Article I

2. Self-identification as indigenous peoples will be fundamental criteria for determining to whom this Declaration applies. The states shall respect the right to such self-identification as indigenous, individually or collectively.

Article III

Indigenous peoples have the right to self-determination. By virtue of that right, they freely determine their political status and freely pursue their economic, social and cultural development.

Article XXXVIII

The Organization of American States, its organs, agencies, and entities, shall take all necessary measures to promote the full respect, protection, and application of the rights of indigenous peoples contained in the Declaration and shall endeavor to ensure their efficacy.

● ————— Proclamations Affirming Moors Are Aborigines ————— ●

Many active and conscious Moorish-Americans across our North continent (America) have been consistent and dedicated in their duties and responsibilities to answer up to their constitution principles. In exercising their (our) Unalienable Rights and their (our) Divine Birthrights, Moors have been working to take their places in the affairs of men.

On December 22, 2011, Rahm Emanuel, Mayor of Chicago (Mecca) published a Proclamation that affirmed that Moors are the aboriginal and indigenous people of North America, South America, Central America and the adjoining Islands. To date '7' other City Officials have proclaimed the very same proclamation.

A Proclamation is the act of 'Proclaiming' or 'Publishing', which is an 'Avowel' (open Declaration) or a formal 'Declaration'. This act causes some 'State' matters to be 'Published' or to be made generally known; and by virtue of the said 'matter' being placed in 'written form' and issued by proper authority.

United States North American Republic Constitution, Article IV, Section 1

Article IV

Section 1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other state. And the Congress may by general laws prescribe the manner in which such acts, records, and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.
